

2022 NEW TRIER ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENT HONOREE

John Donahoe

Class of 1978

After having served on Nike's Board of Directors for six years, John Donahoe joined Nike as CEO in January 2020 to grow the Nike brand as well as Nike's global business portfolio.

Previously, he was president and CEO for ServiceNow and eBay. Earlier in his career, Donahoe worked for Bain & Company for almost 20 years, becoming the firm's CEO in 1999. A former basketball player and lifelong sports fan, he received an MBA from Stanford Graduate School of Business and the Ernest C. Arbuckle Award, which recognizes excellence in management leadership.

